Pension index: applied as invalid 1890 and 1907, widow applied May 2, 1910. His death date shown as March 30, 1910.

Munsell's 1880 History of Delaware County: (obit, in CMNews April 1, 1910, much the same as below)

Charles Gorsh was born in Prussia in 1828 and came to NY in 1854. He was married in 1868 to Jane, d. of John Bailey, He was a soldier in the Federal army with the 19th Army Corps, 90th NY battalion. After working in the cabinet business 3 years in Andes, he removed to Margaretville where he now carries on a business as cabinet maker and undertaker.

Charles' son Hugo took over undertaking and furniture biz of his father. Hugo died July 1923, age 53. By March 1924, A. J. Holmes was advertising as "successor to Gorsch's Sons."

From Biographical Review of Delaware County, 1895

CHARLES GORSCH. In 1857 he came to Andes, where he was employed by Mr. William Oliver, of that town, for three years. After that he came to Margaretville, and here purchased a lot, upon which from time to time, as his prospects enlarged and brightened, he erected buildings. During the Civil War of 1861-65 Mr. Gorsch joined the Union army, enlisting in Company B of the Ninetieth Regiment, Nineteenth Corps, under Captain Lamb, serving during the campaign in the Shenandoah Valley, under General Sheridan, and took part with his regiment in that memorable battle of Cedar Creek. In 1865 he returned to Margaretville, where he applied himself so assiduously to business that in ten years he was able to purchase the largest and oldest mercantile building in the village.

Three years after coming here Mr. Gorsch was the accepted suitor of Miss Jennie Bailey, whom he married in 1868. Miss Bailey was one of the six children of John L. and Deborah (Bush) Bailey, of Margaretville. Seven children, a mystic number, completed the family circle of Charles and Jennie Gorsch, to whom were born six sons and one daughter. Charles, the first born and bearer of his father's name, blessed the marriage of his parents on the 28th of November, 1869. He grew up and married Hattie Stinson, of Roxbury, and has one child. He is an undertaker and furniture dealer in the town of Roxbury. Hugo, the second child, was born June 7, 1871. The third, Wilson, born September 27, 1872, is employed in a large storehouse in New York. The others are: Nellie, who lives at home, and is unmarried; Marvin and Melvin, who are twins; and Arthur, whose birth date is the 27th of June, 1880.

In politics Mr. Gorsch is a Republican. Though of foreign birth and training, he has thoroughly assimilated the American modes of thought and habit, and is entirely loyal to the ensign of the "stars and stripes." He has held several small offices, proving his own efficiency and his neighbors' judicious bestowal of confidence. He is also a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Catskill Mtn News, 4/22/1910:

Charles Gorsch; late of Margaretville, by his will disposes of $12,000 real estate and if 13,000 personal and gives to the wife, Jennie Gorsch, house and lot in Margaretville, 2,000 in money

Conflicting 1866 Town Clerk Records for Adison Griffin of the 144th:

Middletown:

Adison Griffin, born Middletown, residence Middletown. (No parents or birthdate named). Pvt. 144th, Co. G. Enl. 9/1862, 3 yrs., $25; Mustered Out July 13, 1865.

Halcott (presume family members provided this info, whereas Mtown clerk surmised – incorrectly):

Addison Griffin resident Halcott, born March 28, 1842 Greene County. Corporal 144th, Co. G. enlisted Aug. 25, 1862, Mustered In Sept. 27, 1862, enlisted at Halcott, single, farmer, parents John and Mary D. Blumberg. Was taken sick in Douglas Hospital, Washington, DC, died on 30th day of July 1863 in said hospital, buried in soldiers cemetery at Washington.

144th Roster: Addison Griffin, 20, enlisted 8/30/1862 at Middletown, 3 years, MI pvt. Co. G. 9/27/62, promoted corporal 4/24/63, died chronic diarrhea 7/30/63 at Washington, DC.

Surmise Mary Bloomburgh, widowed when husband John Griffin died in 1851, married Tenant Peck, Jr., who then enlisted August 1862 in 120th Regt in Lexington (Roster says he was 44, but census in 1860 shows him as 53). He died Dec. 1, 1862 of disease near Brooks Station (Falmouth), VA, and was buried in camp

This soldier was from Halcott, not Middletown and should be stricken from the database

Buried: Originally buried Old Arena Cemetery, relocated to New Kingston Valley Cemetery because of Pepacton Reservoir. D. Oct. 23, 1895, age 55, Pvt. Co. K., 20th Regt NYV

1866 Middletown Town Clerk’s record says Frederich Haynes, single, served in 20th/80th Regt., Co. D. Born June 1846, son of Anderson and Betsy Kelly, born Lumberville. Discharged after 15 months, health permanently impaired.

80th Unit Roster: Frederick Haines, 22, enlisted at Kingston to serve 3 years, mustered in pvt. Co. K., Jan 4 1864. Discharged for disability Mar 18, 1865. ALSO BORNE AS J. HAYNES

Question: What was relationship between Frederick and John Haynes?

Both show Anderson Haynes as father, but different mothers.

- Haynes/Ferraro Family Tree on Ancestry shows Anderson Haynes 1813-married to Debby Kelly, shows no other spouse. Children: Frederick 1843-, John 1844-1910, Richard 1848-, Dorcas (female) 1829-1876. No info about any of them other than dates.
- Pepacton reburial records show that Fredric's remains were claimed by Harriet VanDusen, 'cousin,' who also claimed remains of John Haynes, her 'grandfather'

There is a Frederick Haynes in 1865 Hardenbergh, living with cousin Judson Haynes, 32, in household that included Judson's parents, Derrick and Peggy Haynes, 60 and 59. Does not say that Frederick is in Army, however. Believe veteran Fred Haynes was in Middletown 1865 (above)

Peter F. Hoffman

CMNews:4/24/03: Peter Hoffman went to Kingston to Purchase a new team for F. D. Newton, proprietor of Pakatakan Inn. 7/9/09: Peter Hoffman, well known Arkville man who has been in California for some time, is at the home of his brother Martin in Arkville and expects to remain here for a time at least. 9/24/09: Peter Hoffman of Arkville has been granted an original pension at the rate of $12/month. 4/1/10: Peter Hoffman, who has been spending the winter in the south, returned to Arkville for the summer. 10/24/13: Arkville. Peter F. Hoffman for many years proprietor of the Hoffman House, now called The Pakatakan, arrived in town last week after a 2 year absence and is staying with his brother Martin in this place. 9/8/22: Peter Hoffman, long time and well known resident, has recently and in past years weeded and replenished the cemetery of Arkville for which the good citizens of the community are grateful. Mr. Hoffman built and managed the Pakatakan Inn in this village until the death of his wife whereupon he preferred to relinquish the business. 9/22/22: Peter Hoffman says the cemetery still needs attention. The walls need patching up so that cattle can't wander into the grounds and turn down stones and markers. Other repairs require funds. Those feeling disposed to help in the work can send contributions to Seager George. 7/25/24: Dunraven: Peter Hoffman of Arkville was calling on friends in this vicinity Monday before leaving for the Soldiers Home at Bath.

Obituary: 9/24/26 (Arkville Correspondent) Peter F. Hoffman, a life time resident of this section, died at the Soldier's Home at Bath on Sunday at the age of 81 years. The body was brought home on Tuesday and the funeral was held from the Arkville church on Wednesday and interment was made in the Arkville cemetery beside his wife and two children who died many years ago. The pall bearers were members of the local American Legion. Mr. Hoffman was a veteran of the Civil War, a member of Co. G 144th infantry. He was well and favorably known at Arkville where the most of his life had been spent. He built the present Pakatakan Inn and operated it for years under the name of the Hoffman House. It was one of the first boarding house ventures in this section of the country and many people have always claimed that Mr. Hoffman was the pioneer in getting New York people to come to the mountains. Most of his guests were artists and among them were some of the best known in America. He is survived by one daughter, who is somewhere in the west, and one brother, Martin Hoffman of Arkville. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and of the M. E. church of which he attended regularly when health permitted.

Peter Hoffman had a boarding house frequented by artist J. Francis Murphy who convinced Peter that if he built a hotel Murphy would get his other artist friends to come and stay. He bought 50 acres on the side of Pakatakan Mtn. and this launched the Pakatakan Artist Colony in 1886. Sometime after 1900 he sold to Margaret Newton and the hotel became known as the Pakatakan Inn.
